
Welcome Parents And Caregivers

Welcome to this new site. It will be meant as a resource for parents and caregivers who have questions or concerns about the language development of their young children.

If you have any general question about language development, don't hesitate to ask them; if you have a question, another parent probably has the same one (and is too shy to ask). Even if your child has a totally typical language development, you might have questions. Maybe you heard some suggestions from Aunt Suzy and you are not sure if they are good to follow. Just ask.

See you in upcoming posts.
